TUESDAY JULY 9, 1861

THE Government has recognized the Wheeling organization as the State Government of Virginia, by official communications to Gov. PIERFONY.

THE Journal of vesterday, was filled with extracts and articles opposed to the war. It arrays the Cincinnati Enquirer, the Missouri Republican, and other kindred authority to bolster up its doctrine of making peace with armed rebels on their own terms. To these are added a detached extract from the President's Inaugural, and an allusion to a noble sentiment of the "immortal Douglas." The latter is decidedly cool! It is the first allusion on the part of the Journal we have noticed to the departed statesman since his decease. Will the Journal publish the last two speeches made by Mr. Dountas and approve their sentiment?

Eleventh Regiment.

Most of the men from our city comprising the two companies in Col. WALLACE's Zonave Regiment, express a desire and willingness to extend their enlistment and remain in the regiment. Nearly all would do so, if it were not for matters at home. All left suddenly and without time to arrange their affairs for a protracted absence. Some of the men left business behind them which requires their personal attention-others families which need their care. There are doubtless many instances where it will be impossible for the individual to remain away longer. The bulk of the men will, however, doubtless recollst for the war.

The regiment occupies a fine position, both in respect to its place in the line of advance and also in the estimation of the War Department. It is extremely desirable that it should be kept together, in so far as possible, and that as little new material be thrown into it as may be. Col. WALLACK can fill up his ranks, in a day, from offers made him by citizens of Maryland-but he and his associate officers have a just pride that the regiment shall be wholly composed of Indiana soldiery. For the purpose, there fore, of filling up the companies to the present standard-one hundred and one, rank and file-and of supplying the places of such men as are compelled to decline re-enlistment, several of the Captains of companies have returned home for the purpose of obtaining

It is to be hoped that all those, at present connected with the regiment, who can possi bly remain will do so. Our citizens have taken great pride and interest in this regiment It is more identified with our city than any other, in the service, and our people would be gratified to see as many of our "own boys" remain, as can possibly do so. They are sure to win renown in the ranks of the Eleventh. So far, therefore, as their friends and relatives can reconcile their feelings to their remaining, it is to be hoped that they will do so. Many of the soldiers from our city are quite young men-some of them boys in years-but they have, without exception, shown a soldier's bearing, courage and physical endurance, and have gained great credit for their past conduct. We trust that all those who can will remain with the regiment, and that their friends here will speedily while them of their consent to do so, when ever they may be so situated to give it. To those who desire to embark in the service, the Eleventh offers a rare opportunity. In the course of a few days arrangements for recruiting will be perfected and the proper ansouncement made

Peace.

There is a class of people, in our conntry, who are, of late, becoming exceedingly philanthropic and are looking forward anxionsly to the millenium, when Peace shall reign supreme. They are for the immediate beating of all spears into pruning books and swords into play shares. They are investigating the qualities of lions and lambs and anxiously looking for them to lie down togeth er. They are prating about love, patience, forbearance, long suffering, brotherly affection and other cardinal virtues. They are for starting the millenium north of Mason and Dixon's line forthwith, no matter if all the ills of Fundemonium prevails south of it. They are for bowing to the house breaker who enters their dwelling at night-shaking hands with the highwarman who is riffing their persons, feeding the murderer who is seeking their lives, and doing many other silly things such as human nature never vet has endured. All this might do very well in times of national quietnde and peace. Those who preach this theory might then attempt to

All things however are different now, our country is involved in war with traitors and miscreants who are socking to destroy it .-The preaching of peace now-by those who have never heretofore belonged to Peace Societies and who boost of no mirsculous conversion from former opinions and practices -is rather a suspicious sign. It has always been found, in every war in this country, that there was a sort of querulous, milk and water party who professed to be for peace-peace at all barards-peace even with bondage and disgrace. The Tories of the Revolution were for peace. They wanted peace bad enough to sympathise with the public enemy and scheme for the defeat of their government. It is fully certain that most of the eronkers for peace, in our present difficulties are of the same stripe.

The patriotism of the man who is clamor. one for peace with traitors, before they lav down their arms, is very suspicious. He means really to plead their cause, to weaken the strength and purpose of his friends and neighbors who are with the government, and counteract their efforts. War is an evil always, but there are greater evils than war !-A peace procured by have submission to tree non is a worse evil. A nation which forcess ics traditions - which remembers not the his toric glory of its origin-which cravenly bows down to traiters and despots is worse off, than that which is a surged with war. There are times when there cannot be peace and he who cries for it then, means opposition to his government and sympathy with its onemie-People have heard enough of creaking for peace compromise, and sgainst the taxation and horrors of war to know what it all means. It is a cure index of a subtle and baiden opposition to the war and sympathy with the enemy

Secession of Tennessee.

The returns of the Tennessee election upon the subject of "separation" have been officially declared by proclamation of Governor HARRIS. He states the majority in the whole State in favor of separation at 57,675. In accordance with this vote he declares "all connexion with the Federal Union dissolved and that Tennessee is a free and independent government, free from all obligations to, o connection with the Federal Government of the United States of America." East Tennessee stood nobly by the cause of the Union. Out of 47,703 votes east in this portion of the State, 32,923 were against separation. Middle and West Tennessee were too strong, however, for the patriots of the Eastern por tion, and by force and fraud they were out-

This adds another to "the string" of seceded States. It will prove to be a sad choice for Tennessee. She will soon share the fate of Virginia and be transformed into a battle ground for contending armies. Just what she is to attain by this course it is hard to determine. Time will show who are right in the matter, the Union men of East Tennessee, or the secessionists of the balance of the

Letter from Camp Reynolds.

CAMP REYNOLDS, Indianapolis, June 30. EUTTORS EXPRESS-For want of a better piece of furniture I make my camp-cheet a substitute, and sit down to give you a few inidents of camp life in the gallant 14th. The 14th justly has the same of being the erack Regiment of Indiana in morals as well as ize, and gentlemen here have told me that we owe the moral influence which prevades our ranks to the kind attention of the ladies of Terre Haute while at Camp Vigo. Here we see very few ladies, except hucksters, and feel decidedly "down in the mouth" when we think of the big pies and pound cakes of Camp Vigo. This absence of the smiles and rost faces of the "other ball of us makes a ellow feel as if he was a balf savage, and brings fresh to the memory that it is not 'good for man to be alone.'

Col. Kimball is well liked by his Regiment, and the boys are auxious for a chance to pitch into the Secesshers," and as there is a prospect of our leaving here in a few days, their wishes may be gratified before long, and there is no doubt but they will give a good account of themselves. We are sorry to part with Capt. Hager from Company F for he is a gentleman in every respect." 'Rough and Ready" Charlie Smith will command Company F, and make good use of the beautiful sword presented to him by the patdotic citizens of Terre Haute. As for your numble correspondent he is content to wield the carving knife, frying pan and ladle, and keep his mess up to their fighting weight .-By the way we are getting up a Regimental Temperance organization and have already ear two hundred names on our Temperance roll; success to the work. The health of the Regiment is good. Doctor J. G. McPheeters reported to me this morning nineteen cases n camp with mumps, measels and diarrhosa, and ten sent to the hospital. No dangerous cases on hand. The doctor is a gentleman and appears to understand his business.

Some Good Things in Missouri

Colonel Boernstein, the "Dutch" commander, who held possession of Jefferson City, Missouri, with 500 loyal soldiers, seems to be the right man for his position. A correspondent of the New York Tribune tells the following good stories about him

Colonel Boernstein heard to day of a des perado in town, from Clark township, who has had a company of disunionists known as the "Tigers." "If any bodies vill make re affidavit," said the Colonel, "I vill arrest him if he ish a tiger. I don't pelieve in tigers ; zey d-l humbugs!" The plan in Missouri is to arrest the ringleaders, organize the Union men and arm them as fast as possible. From what I can see now, it will take no long campaign to put secession, in this State, thoroughly under the ban of public senti-

Some one inquired to day or Colonel Boernstein how long he should remain here. I don't know," he replied, with a French shrug of the shoulders, "perhaps a year ; so ong as ze Governor chooses to stay away ; I am Governer now, you see, 'till he comes back." His notions of freedom of speech and the press, be expressed freely, like this:-All people call speak vat dey tink-write vat dev pleashe, and he free to do anything der pleazhe-only dey zall speak and write no treason!" I commend this view to the government official officers in general. The same writer relates the following inidents of the war in Missouri: The Platte Valley steamer was recently brought to, by the guns of the St. Louis Asenal, with a load of traiters and contra bend The first shot, a blank cartridge, produced no effect. The next was a shell, which was made to explode a little beyond the boat ; and this also was disregarded. The third, a June 17, 1861-dif large ball, passed just above her deck, between the chimners and the wheel house, and had the effect to set the bell to ringing and practice it, only at the risk of landing in the the whistle screaming, which signals of acquiescence were continued till the boat reached the landing.

> Why. Sir," said the captalu to the gunner did you prean to sink me?" "Certainly," was the cool reply, "I am ordered to fire one harmless shot at least; I gave rou the benefit of two, and simed the third at your engine; but the gun was ranged a little too high. I did not want to hit your boilers and scald you all to death; but the next time I shall sink sue at the second

"For God's sake don't trouble yourself, replied the captain." just send a small boy does total a drum if ever you want me, and Il come to at once.

Tac Montgomery Co. Hernid on Trea-

The Montgomery Herald, a sterling Dennis crutic sheet, that believes that there is nothing in the creed of the Democratic party that requires them to assist in the destruction of their country uses the following language at the close of a very able odiportal in its last

Believing the salvation .. the netion depends upon the favorable issue of this contest the great Democratic party, with almost entire unanimity, have rushed to defend their Covernment, and knewing this to be no pershoulder with Republicans against the common foe. For raising our voice in support of Government-for denouncing the rebellion; and holding up to public scorn traitors and treason, we are called by some dozen or twenty men in Jackson county a "Black Reliens" Hetter that than freiter. Who appointed such fellows pensors of the Democratic party? Who gave them power over the thoughts and consciencies of the people? Who invested them alone with the cower to decide what should constitute the Democratic creed? What magnanimous souls they possess-what enlarged views of in-what lofty patriotien--what miving veneration for age glorious Constisation! We must give aid and comfort to the enemy must see our system of government overthrown, and this Pulos ters into atoms, without raising a finger in its defence, because a Republican President rules over us! Shame! shame on such misereants, who would use the garb of Democracy thus to cover their traitorous sins.

Minors in the Army. On Saturday night, before Judge Perkins of the Supreme Court, a habeas corpus case was heard, involving the right of parents or guardians to demand the release of miners in the army. A son of Dr. Beaver, of Liberty, it seem's had volunteered against the wishes of his parents, and being under twenty-one but over eighteen his father sought to procure his release. The principle points made in the case were first, that being under age he could not act contrary to the will of his rarents, and second, that he was not "an able bodied man." The Judge held that the law of Congress was paramount in this case, and that law authorized the enlistment of men over eighteen. In other words, that for the purpose of serving in the army a boy was of age, and able to act his own will, at eighteen. As to his being "able bodied" or otherwise, the Judge said that the requirement that soldiers should be "able bodied" was a precaution for the protection of the Government against useless soldiers, and if the Government chose to waive it for any reason it could do so. He refused to discharge the young man, but the father was making strenuous exertions yesterday to procure his discharge, but we have not heard with what success. The boy belonged to Col. Wagner's regiment.—Indianapolis Journal.
